I. The Six Articles of Faith (Arkan al-Iman): A Foundation of Belief

Islam's foundational beliefs are encapsulated in the six articles of faith. Understanding these is crucial to comprehending the essence of the faith. We will examine each in detail, exploring their implications and significance for a Muslim's life:

Belief in God (Allah): This isn't simply acknowledging a deity's existence; it encompasses a profound understanding of Allah's oneness (Tawhid), His attributes, and His role as the creator, sustainer, and judge of all creation. We'll discuss the concept of Tawhid in detail, explaining its profound implications for Islamic worldview. The 99 names of Allah (Asma ul-Husna) will also be touched upon, providing a deeper understanding of God's multifaceted nature.

Belief in Angels: Angels are spiritual beings created by God, carrying out His commands. We'll explore the roles of key angels like Jibril (Gabriel), Mika'il (Michael), Israfil, and Azrael, and address misconceptions surrounding angelic intervention.

Belief in Divine Books: Islam recognizes a succession of divinely revealed books, with the Quran being the final and most complete revelation. We'll discuss the significance of previous scriptures like the Torah and the Gospels within an Islamic context, highlighting their importance in understanding God's consistent message to humanity.

Belief in Prophets: Islam believes in a lineage of prophets sent by God throughout history, each tasked with guiding their people. We will examine the role of prophets like Abraham, Moses, Jesus, and finally Muhammad (peace be upon them all), emphasizing their shared message of monotheism and ethical conduct.

Belief in the Day of Judgment: This explores the Islamic belief in resurrection, accountability, and the ultimate judgment of individuals based on their actions in this life. We will address common questions surrounding heaven and hell, and the concept of reward and punishment in the afterlife.

Belief in Divine Decree (Qadar): This fundamental belief focuses on God's absolute power and knowledge, encompassing His preordained plan for the universe and humanity. We'll discuss the balance between God's will and human free will, a topic often misunderstood.

II. The Five Pillars of Islam (Arkan al-Islam): Practical Expressions of Faith

The Five Pillars are the foundational practices of Islam, serving as tangible expressions of faith. Understanding and fulfilling these pillars is central to living a Muslim life:

Declaration of Faith (Shahada): The sincere declaration of faith, affirming the oneness of God and the prophethood of Muhammad, forms the cornerstone of Islam. We will delve into the meaning and significance of this declaration, emphasizing its implications for a Muslim's life and identity.

Prayer (Salat): The five daily prayers are a direct connection with God, fostering humility, gratitude, and remembrance. We'll provide guidance on performing prayers correctly, addressing common questions regarding prayer times and locations.

Charity (Zakat): Zakat, the obligatory charitable giving, is a vital aspect of social justice in Islam. We will examine its purpose, methods of calculation, and its role in promoting economic fairness and social responsibility.

Fasting (Sawm): Ramadan, the month of fasting, is a time of spiritual reflection, self-discipline, and increased devotion. We will explain the rules and regulations of fasting, emphasizing its spiritual benefits and its societal impact.

Pilgrimage (Hajj): The Hajj, a pilgrimage to Mecca, is a once-in-a-lifetime journey undertaken by Muslims who are physically and financially able. We'll explain the rituals and significance of Hajj, illustrating its powerful spiritual and communal aspects.

islam answers: Questioning Islam Emeritus Professor of Experimental Physics in Engineering Peter Townsend, Peter Townsend, 2014-06-27 Many questions are currently being asked about the place of Islam in the modern world. Among these questions the most important one of all sometimes gets lost: Is Islam true? With his new book author Peter Townsend invites you to accompany him on a journey through the foundational texts of the Muslim religion. In the process the truth-claims of Islam will be respectfully, honestly and impartially evaluated. Along the way the following questions will be asked: - Can the traditional Islamic historical accounts be trusted? - Is the Qur'an a 'Perfect Book, Perfectly Preserved'? - Was Muhammad indeed a 'Beautiful Pattern of Conduct'? The answers to these questions will not be sought from modern commentaries on Islam. Instead Questioning Islam goes straight to the classic sources of Islam namely the Qur'an, hadiths (traditions) and biographies of Muhammad. Questioning Islam is not an attempt to promote any other belief system or ideology. Its focus is simply on asking the hard questions about Islam that are all too often ignored or swept under the carpet. Simply put, if you have ever wondered whether the truth-claims of Islam can withstand critical scrutiny then this book is for you!

islam answers: THE GUIDE TO ANSWERING ISLAM Daniel Janosik, 2019-01-26 The average Christian knows somewhat how dangerous radical Islam is because of the regular media coverage of beheadings of Christians, Jews, and even young little children, not to mention Muslims with which they disagree. However, the average Christian does not know their true beliefs, just how many there are, to the extent they will go to carry out these beliefs. Daily we find Islamic commentators on the TV and radio, offering up misleading information, quoting certain portions of the Quran while leaving other parts out. When considering Islamic beliefs, other Islamic writings must be considered, like the Hadith or Sunnah, and the Shariah, or canon law. While Islam, in general, does not support radical Islam, the vast majority do support radical beliefs. For example, beheadings, stoning for adultery or homosexuality, suicide bombings, turning the world into an Islamic state, and far too many other heinous things. THE GUIDE TO ANSWERING ISLAM provides Christians with an overview of Islamic terminology. The reader will learn about Muhammad's calling, the history of the Quran, how Islam expanded, the death of Muhammad and the splinter groups that followed. In addition, the three sources of their teaching, six pillars of belief, five pillars of Islam, the twelfth Imam, and much more will be discussed. While there are several books on Islam and radical Islam, this will be the first that will prepare its readers to communicate effectively with Muslims in an effort toward sharing biblical truths. THE GUIDE TO ISLAM will be an effective evangelism tool. In addition, each chapter will end with review questions, helping the reader recall the main points of the chapter. Therefore, it can be studied alone or in a church Bible study setting. THE GUIDE TO ANSWERING ISLAM has the contents constructed in a way that will greatly serve the Christian Church. There are many recent books written by Christians about Islam, and there are many books written recently about radical Islam. However, none of these recent books attempts to do what has been done, which is to give an adequate portrayal of Islam, critiqued by history and Christian doctrine, and then culminating in an extensive evaluation of the rise of Radical Islam from a Christian's perspective.

islam answers: Four Questions by Mr Sirajuddīn, a Christian, and Their Answers Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, 2009 The Christian concept of Redemption through 'Accursed Sacrifice' is an abomination and a blasphemy against a beloved Prophet of God. Jesus of Nazareth did not die on the cross and did not become accursed. The Holy Quran has perfected the concept of Tauhid, or the Unity of God, although it was also taught by past scriptures. The teachings of the Holy Quran are meant for all people and all times. Earlier scriptures confined their teachings to specific people or nations. Islam enjoins 'love' only for God, while in relation to mankind it teaches 'mercy' and 'compassion'. Wars waged during the time of the Holy Prophet(sa) were to repel aggression and not to force Islam upon others. These are some of the points elucidated by Hadrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian, (the Promised Messiah and Mahdi, founder of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama'at), while responding to four questions sent to him by Mr. Sirajuddin, a Muslim who had turned to Christianity.

islam answers: Answering Jihad Nabeel Qureshi, 2016-03-08 From New York Times bestselling author of Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus Nabeel Qureshi—a former Muslim—comes his deeply personal, challenging, and respectful answer book to the many questions surrounding jihad, the rise of ISIS, and Islamic terrorism. San Bernardino was the most lethal terror attack on American soil since 9/11, and it came on the heels of a coordinated assault on Paris. There is no question that innocents were slaughtered in the name of Allah and in the way of jihad (meaning warfare against the enemies of Islam, in this case). But do the terrorists' actions actually reflect the broader religion of Islam? The answer to this question is more pressing than ever, as many Muslim refugees are still migrating to the West, seeking shelter from the violent ideologies of ISIS, Al-Qaida, and other radical Islamic groups. Setting aside speculations and competing voices, Qureshi explores the answers to difficult questions like: What is Islam, and is it a religion of peace or violence? Is there a clear definition and doctrine of jihad? How are we to understand jihad and radical expressions of Islam in relation to our Muslim neighbors and friends? Why is there such a surge of Islamist terrorism in the world today, and how should we respond? How does jihad compare with Old Testament calls to warfare? In Answering Jihad, bestselling author Nabeel Qureshi answers these urgent questions from the perspective of a former Muslim who is deeply concerned for both his Muslim family and his American homeland.
