I. The Six Articles of Faith (Arkan al-Iman): The Foundation of Islamic Belief

Islam rests on six fundamental articles of faith, which form the bedrock of a Muslim's belief system. Understanding these is crucial to grasping the essence of Islam.

Belief in One God (Allah): This is the cornerstone of Islam, emphasizing the absolute oneness and uniqueness of God (Allah). It rejects the concept of any partners or equals to God, emphasizing His absolute power, knowledge, and mercy. This concept of Tawhid (Oneness of God) permeates all aspects of Islamic life.

Belief in Angels: Islam acknowledges the existence of angels, created by God, who carry out His commands and serve as messengers. Important angels like Jibril (Gabriel), who revealed the Quran to Prophet Muhammad, and Mikail (Michael), are frequently mentioned in Islamic texts.

Belief in Divine Books: Muslims believe in the divine origin of several holy books, including the Torah, Psalms, Gospel, and most importantly, the Quran, which they consider to be the final and complete revelation of God's word.

Belief in Prophets: Islam recognizes a long line of prophets, sent by God throughout history to guide humanity. Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) is considered the final prophet in this lineage, sent to all of mankind.

Belief in the Day of Judgment: Muslims believe in a Day of Judgment, where all individuals will be held accountable for their actions in this life. This belief emphasizes the importance of living a righteous life according to God's commands.

Belief in Divine Decree (Qadar): This refers to the belief that God has preordained everything that happens in the universe, including human actions and events. However, this doesn't negate free will; rather, it highlights God's absolute knowledge and control over all creation.

II. The Five Pillars of Islam (Arkan al-Islam): The Pillars of Practice

The Five Pillars are the core practices that define the outward expressions of Islamic faith. They are essential for every Muslim's life.

Shahada (Declaration of Faith): This is the declaration of faith, stating "There is no god but God (Allah), and Muhammad is the messenger of God." It represents the absolute surrender to God's will.

Salat (Prayer): Muslims perform five daily prayers at dawn, noon, afternoon, sunset, and night. These prayers involve specific recitations from the Quran and physical postures, symbolizing devotion and submission to God.

Zakat (Charity): This is the obligatory giving of a portion of one's wealth to the poor and needy. It's a vital aspect of social justice and economic equality within the Muslim community.

Sawm (Fasting): Muslims fast during the month of Ramadan, abstaining from food and drink from dawn till dusk. This act of self-discipline fosters spiritual growth, empathy, and compassion.

Hajj (Pilgrimage): If physically and financially able, Muslims are obligated to perform the Hajj pilgrimage to Mecca at least once in their lifetime. This journey is a profound spiritual experience, uniting Muslims from all over the world.

III. Understanding the Quran and Sunnah: Sources of Islamic Law

Islamic law (Sharia) is derived from two primary sources: the Quran and the Sunnah.

The Quran: The holy book of Islam, believed to be the literal word of God revealed to Prophet Muhammad. It provides guidance on all aspects of life, from personal morality to social justice.

The Sunnah: This encompasses the teachings, practices, and sayings of Prophet Muhammad. It serves as an interpretation and practical application of the Quran's principles. The Sunnah is transmitted through Hadith, which are collections of narrations about the Prophet's life and teachings.

questions and answers islam: Questioning Islam Emeritus Professor of Experimental Physics in Engineering Peter Townsend, Peter Townsend, 2014-06-27 Many questions are currently being asked about the place of Islam in the modern world. Among these questions the most important one of all sometimes gets lost: Is Islam true? With his new book author Peter Townsend invites you to accompany him on a journey through the foundational texts of the Muslim religion. In the process the truth-claims of Islam will be respectfully, honestly and impartially evaluated. Along the way the following questions will be asked: - Can the traditional Islamic historical accounts be trusted? - Is the Qur'an a 'Perfect Book, Perfectly Preserved'? - Was Muhammad indeed a 'Beautiful Pattern of Conduct'? The answers to these questions will not be sought from modern commentaries on Islam. Instead Questioning Islam goes straight to the classic sources of Islam namely the Qur'an, hadiths (traditions) and biographies of Muhammad. Questioning Islam is not an attempt to promote any other belief system or ideology. Its focus is simply on asking the hard questions about Islam that are all too often ignored or swept under the carpet. Simply put, if you have ever wondered whether the truth-claims of Islam can withstand critical scrutiny then this book is for you!

questions and answers islam: The Qur'an & the Bible in the Light of Science Zakir Naik, 2012 questions and answers islam: Four Questions by Mr Sirājuddīn, a Christian, and Their Answers Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, 2009 The Christian concept of Redemption through 'Accursed Sacrifice' is an abomination and a blasphemy against a beloved Prophet of God. Jesus of Nazareth did not die on the cross and did not become accursed. The Holy Quran has perfected the concept of Tauhid, or the Unity of God, although it was also taught by past scriptures. The teachings of the Holy Quran are meant for all people and all times. Earlier scriptures confined their teachings to specific people or nations. Islam enjoins 'love' only for God, while in relation to mankind it teaches 'mercy' and 'compassion'. Wars waged during the time of the Holy Prophet(sa) were to repel aggression and not to force Islam upon others. These are some of the points elucidated by Hadrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian, (the Promised Messiah and Mahdi, founder of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama'at), while responding to four questions sent to him by Mr. Sirajuddin, a Muslim who had turned to Christianity.

questions and answers islam: The Meaning of the Glorious Koran Marmaduke William Pickthall, 1953 A translation of the Koran into English by a native English speaker. Pickthall meant the work to convey the meaning of the Koran rather than to serve as a replacement for reading it in Arabic. He believed that the Koran cannot be translated. The structure includes a short introduction summarizing the life of Mohammed and explaining the organization of the surahs (in the order that Mohammed preferred them rather than by chronological revelation or by consistent theme). The copy of the Koran that Pickthall used was written in 1246 C.E. by Al-Hajj Muhammad Shakarzâdeh from Turkey.

questions and answers islam: What Is Islam? Shahab Ahmed, 2015-11-17 A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam? How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction? What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art? Should we speak of Islam or of islams? Should we distinguish the Islamic (the religious) from the Islamicate (the cultural)? Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term? In What Is Islam?, Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture. He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam, distorting it, diminishing it, and rendering it incoherent. What Is Islam? formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam. It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation—one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration, ambiguity, aestheticization, polyvalence, and relativism, as well as practices such as figural art, music, and even wine drinking as Islamic. It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory. A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam, What Is Islam? reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent.
