Understanding the Eight Parts of Speech

Before we dive into the test, let's quickly review the eight parts of speech. Understanding their functions is key to correctly identifying them in sentences.

1. Nouns: These are words that represent people, places, things, or ideas. Examples: cat, house, happiness, democracy.

1. Pronouns: Pronouns replace nouns to avoid repetition. Examples: he, she, it, they, we, I, you, them.

1. Verbs: Verbs show action or a state of being. Examples: run, jump, is, are, was, were, become.

1. Adjectives: Adjectives describe nouns or pronouns. Examples: happy, tall, blue, intelligent, delicious.

1. Adverbs: Adverbs modify verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs. They often end in "-ly." Examples: quickly, happily, very, extremely, slowly.

1. Prepositions: Prepositions show the relationship between a noun or pronoun and another word in the sentence. They often indicate location, time, or direction. Examples: on, in, at, above, below, beside, during, after.

1. Conjunctions: Conjunctions connect words, phrases, or clauses. Examples: and, but, or, nor, for, so, yet.

1. Interjections: Interjections express strong emotion. Examples: Wow!, Ouch!, Help!, Hooray!
